

Questions... but more important, Answers!

Do we share a bathroom? No. The entire cottage is Yours and Yours Alone. Think of the cottage as a small house. You have your own living room, kitchen, bathroom, and bedroom. You only share with each other.

Do you have neighbors? Yes, but they are a suitable distance away. There is a neighbor to the north that is about 300 feet away. There are neighbors to the east, but they are over 500 feet away. To the south is our house. It's about 250 feet away. To the west is only woods, and you have your own, close-in parking.

Do we need to bring linens, pots and pans, etc? No. All the expected household items are provided.

How far away are the wineries? Well, Napa Valley is about 3,000 miles or so, but the multitude of Ashtabula and Lake County wineries are in the 15-45 minute range. For a current list of our wineries, check out our tourism website at VisitAshtabulaCounty.com.

How far away is Lake Erie? The closest public beach is about 15 minutes away. There are a range of public access beach areas stretching from east to west depending on the distance you wish to travel. The closest is Walnut Beach, with lots of parking and sand!

How many cabins/cottages are available? We have only one cottage.

How many people can sleep in your cottage? The short answer is four adults. There is a queen size bed in the loft, and a queen size pull-out couch in the living room, and there are very few doors, so....

How does breakfast work? It works well, thank you for asking. You each order your breakfast the day before (I often need to buy the ingredients). If I'm not around, just leave your choices and the desired breakfast time on my machine. I bring your breakfast to you at your chosen time.

Check in time? Check out time? Check in time is 3pm. Check out time is 11am. If you have other needs, talk to me. By the way, no need to check in when you arrive. The key will be on the table. Let yourself in, and make yourself at home. Enjoy.
